

News flash #1

The inaugural AEFAC Anchor Installer Certification Program was launched on 4th February 2015 at Swinburne University of Technology. It was a very successful event which helped to mould the certification into an even greater success for future certification of installers.

Some photos from the event below:

Figure 1: Training session

Figure 2: Vertical down bonded anchor installation

Figure 3: Overhead injection