

Sydney Build 2024 is set for record government support and attendance!

Officially supported by Lord Mayor Clover Moore, Sydney Build is making its highly anticipated return to the ICC Sydney on 1st and 2nd May 2024. Australia's leading construction and design show is thrilled to introduce exciting new features—including new Government Hubs, both local and international —alongside a prominent lineup of esteemed speakers from the NSW Government and international government bodies over the 2 days.

Sydney Build is set for its largest edition yet, featuring over 500 exhibitors and 500 high-level speakers across 15 conference stages. Spanning six exhibition halls at the ICC Sydney, the show is co-hosted with Digital Construction Australia, Australia HVACR Expo and the International Construction Expo, attracting over 20,000 visitors from leading contractors, architects, developers and construction professionals.

Topics spanning across the Future Australia, Future Construction Stage and the International Construction Business Stage include Infrastructure Development, the Future of Sydney, Making Sydney a World Leader in Construction Technology, MMC and more, with Paul Scully MP, Minister for Planning and Public Spaces and Minister Jackson opening with a keynote welcoming address.
